Barn Upgrades

The barn has been cleaned (top to bottom) and two walls painted white to show our displays better, as well as to make it brighter. The displays have also been rearranged and new interpretative posters added to them. Right now we need some help with cleaning, restoring and interpreting the tools. Please contact us if you can provide the finishing touches.

New Face @ Magee

Thanks to Connie Trejo's recommendation, Miracosta student Brenda Barocio has started as our new docent on Saturdays and Sundays. Her family is long time residents of the downtown area.

Farewell

We bid a fond farewell and many thanks to Coral Pope, who served as our docent from late January until August. Coral used her artistic abilities to repaint our welcome signs and other flyers. She organized our library, rewrote our docent guidelines, and updated our self guided tour document.

Coral is now continuing her college in the Monterey Bay area.

3rd time's a charm! Our Lecture series resumes in September

September 16- Archeological culture of North San Diego County by Annemarie Cox

October 14- Rancho San Dieguito to Rancho Santa Fe: Lilian Rice, Architect, by Diane Welch

Annual Members Meeting

Our Annual Meeting this year will take place at the same time as our September 16 lecture at the Carlsbad by the Sea; 2855 Carlsbad Blvd. Members will meet first at 1 pm for refreshments, membership update and voting. The Lecture will follow at 2 pm. Remember to send in your votes three days in advance, or bring them to the meeting. We will also have a vote by those present to modify our by-laws, which have not been revised in many years.

New photos of Florence and Hugh Magee

We were recently contacted by Stacey Walwick, daughter in law to Florence Shipley Magee's attorney. Thanks to Stacey Walwick for letting us scan some never seen before pictures of Florence and Hugh at their ranch at Condor's Nest, near Pala, where they lived for many years until Hugh passed.

The first photo shows Florence in her pretty middle years, without a hat, which is unusual.

The picture of Hugh is also rare since his face shows in full, as opposed to most photographs that we have that have him with a hat or in the shade.

The above picture has Florence on the right bottom row, with a theater group. She was a big supporter of the arts.

New Pictures of Eddie Kentner

Picture of Eddie Kentner and daughters

Neva and Eddie opened the Twin Inns in 1919.

Thank you Friday volunteers

As you may know, we have volunteers serving as docents on Fridays. We recognize and appreciate the time put in by Murray Levy, Margie Monroy, Ginny Unanue, Garry Dulin, and Germán Gutierrez. Volunteers are always needed and you may enjoy the time to learn history by showing our collection to tourists and school children.

CINCH

The Carlsbad Historical Society is a member of Cinch. Cinch is; The Council Interpreting

Carlsbad Time Lines

North County History. This association of museums and historical institutions of North County meets several times a year to exchange information our organizations. Recently a "rack-card" was published that contains pictures and descriptions of all North County Historical Institutions. This card has been placed at the airport and at major hotels. You can pick up a copy at the Magee house or at the Visitors Center (old train depot). Carlsbad will host the CINCH meeting on October 23 this year at 1 am. All CHS members are encouraged and welcomed to attend.

Early Carlsbad History presentation available

One of our Spring Lectures given at the Carlsbad by the Sea featured early Carlsbad History. The PowerPoint file is available for anyone interested in giving presentations on our history. Please contact Susan Gutierrez if you need to get a copy.
